

SPECIAL SUMMER INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: BIRD CONSERVATION IN SAN PANCHO, MEXICO

Do you love birds?

Benefits:

- Work for a non-profit organization in tropical forest, fresh water and marine habitats.
- Earn 3-6 units of biology or similar credits at San Diego State or your school
- Get trained to ID more than 200 North American migratory and resident species.
- Acquire important skills that you can use professionally!
- Do your own research project
- Give back to the community
- Learn Spanish! Learn to surf! Make new friends!
- Help with the sea turtle project some nights

Requirements:

- Minimum 18 years old, 2.5 GPA
- Ability to live and work in a hot and humid climate
- Teachable, flexible, open-minded with people from all backgrounds
- Intern pays for travel, room and board
- 15-page scientific paper and presentation due at end of project

Apply by 3/15/20 at: www.thescienceexchange.org or contact: info@thescienceexchange.org

