

STUDY WHALE SHARKS IN MEXICO

Benefits:

- Earn college credits
- Help save endangered species
- Do your own research project
- Publication opportunities
- Acquire important skills that you can use in your career!
- Give back to the community
- Learn Spanish! Make new friends!

Requirements:

- Two months during winter months
- Minimum 18 years old
- Ability to live and work in a hot and humid climate
- Teachable, flexible, open-minded with people from all backgrounds
- Intern pays for travel, room and board
- 15-page scientific paper and presentation due at end of project

Apply at: www.thescienceexchange.org or contact: info@thescienceexchange.org

Identify individuals by their markings

Observe shark/human interactions

Document groups and movements

Zooplankton sampling